WANTED.—Bricklayers to work in Lawrenceburg. Apply at this office at once.

ROOMS FOR RENT.—Apply to Mrs. Thos. Carter, corner of Shelby and Cross streets.

FOR SALE.—Household and kitchen furniture for sale cheap by Mrs. C. S. Wright, Belle Point.

The Spring Hill Gun Club had their closing shooting match of the season yesterday afternoon.

Nineteen persons were before the police court yesterday morning for being drunk the day before.

The work-house was full on circus day, forty prisoners being locked up. The police court did a brisk business in consequence yesterday morning.

"The Frequency of Suicide," will be the theme of Mr. Darsies discourse at the Christian Church to-morrow night. A cordial invitation to all.

Several couples came in to see the circus Thursday morning, who, while waiting for the parade, concluded to part in the time by getting married.

The new store recently erected on Second street by Miss Halle Herndon is about completed and will be occupied next week by Mr. John W. Payne as a dry goods and notion store.

Mr. Dan. Meagher, sr., has resigned the position of Superintendent of the old Water Works and Mr. John D. Griffin has been appointed to the position.

In the crowd at the circus tent Thursday several gentlemen had their pockets picked. Mr. Faintley Johnson, of Woodford, lost a pocket-book containing $25 and some valuable papers, Mr. S. F. J. Trabue and Mr. Jerry Tracy also lost their pocket-books.

The marriage of the Rev. Edwin A. Penick and Miss May Shipman will take place in the Church of the Ascension Wednesday evening, the 22d inst., at 8 o'clock. No cards. The friends of both parties are cordially invited.

The ceremony will be performed by Bishop T. U. Dudley, assisted by Bishop Penick.

Salt Knob.

Mr. Editor:
Please allow me to say a few words, as I feel it my duty as a correspondent to correct a little mistake I saw in Saturday's paper. It was reported that a man by the name of Howland induced Mr. and Mrs. N. Goins to bring the dead body of their son to Frankfort, and that Mr. and Mrs. N. Goins was going to Louisville on business and to visit the Exposition, when some of her friends in Frankfort gave her the lady's address and asked her to go to see her for them and make some arrangements for her to come to Frankfort. When the lady found out that she lived in the country she asked, "Can I go to your house?" "I guess you can," was the reply, "not thinking any one would make any harm out of it and tell five hundred lies about it. I attended one of the circles myself and everything went off nicely. The people did not want to go, they could have stayed away, but there is a theatre in town or a circus. If you want to save your money stay at home, for some would not believe what their own eyes behold.

THE GREATSHOW.

Pleasure, Fun and Instructions
Under many Tents.

Strange Men and Women from all Lands—Jumbo and the White Elephant—A Circus of Immense Proportions—A Bewildering Array of Performers—Exciting Races.

Barnum's great show and Jumbo were here and drew one of the largest crowds ever in the city on Thursday. It was the best, the cleanest, and the most immense affair of the kind ever exhibited here. Having been given an opportunity to view it in all its details, we can truthfully say it was a highly moral exhibition. As is usual in the case with Barnum, Bailey & Hutchinson's show, the visitor had to make his way through three or four tents before he reached the one in which the circus proper was to be seen. This experience is made pleasant, in passing through these various annexes the visitor may behold the numerous curios and animals. Within one of the tents stood the sacred white elephant. His majesty held a sort of levee nearer the entrance than where good-natured, colossal Jumbo entertained the children and the ladies. Buddhist priests surrounded his sacred majesty. Rugs of rich texture and brilliant hue lay scattered around, while to the left the gilded image of the Buddha sat in silent splendor. This brute is a disappointment at first sight. He is not white. But on close examination his hide is of a light dove color, and as soft as silk. His musk is pink, and he has pink spots on and behind the ears. Compared with the other elephants he looks as if of a noble breed, and seems to justify the opinion of his attendant: "He's an aristocrat." He certainly looks as if he was not a stranger to soap and water, while the others appear like huge relatives who love to revel in dirt. But it is Jumbo, after all, that reigns supreme in the loves of ladies and children. There is no disappointment about him. Especially pleasant to all is his good nature.

Then, as the visitor passed around the tent, the largest and greatest ethnological exhibition ever seen in a circus was viewed. Something pleasant and instructive to look at. The various tribes of Indians, Burmese, Todas, Syrians, Hindoos, Nautch girls of real beauty, Zulus, Chang the Chinese giant; dwarfs, adorned the sides of the tent, making a strange and weird sort of dado around the wall. The menagerie tent was filled with rare beasts of every description.

In the "green-room," the most perfect of order prevailed. Fifty ladies and gentlemen sit their horses with ease and grace. Twenty Arabian and English blooded steeds step into place, and horses harnessed to chariots raise their ears attentively. Every animate being in the place turns its eyes toward the entrance. A bell rings, and five hundred file in the circus tent. Not a word, much less an oath, is heard. The band begins to play. The performance has begun. The multitude is surprised and satisfied at the "entry." They are bewildered at the magnificence of the exhibitions which follow. There are two rings and a stage, and something going on all the time. Sometimes two and three different acts in each. Without a moment's interruption the show proceeds, incident succeeds incident with the nice precision, guided by intellectual fore-thought. Riders, aerobats, jugglers, fantasias, a score of clowns, performing steeds, educated elephants, clown elephant, educated and comic pigs and monkeys, appear at the proper moments. But the ring performances are too numerous and varied for description and have to be seen to be appreciated.

The visit of Barnum's Circus and Jumbo will long be remembered by the large crowds in attendance both afternoon and evening.

Very Remarkable Recovery.

Mr. Geo. V. Willing, of Manchester, Mich., writes: "My wife has been almost helpless for five years, so helpless that she could not turn over in bed alone. She used two Bottles of Electric Bitters, and is so much improved, that she can now turn over in bed alone. Electric Bitters will do all that is claimed for them. Hundreds of testimonials attest their great curative powers. Only fifty cents a bottle at Joe LeCompte's Drug Store."

Watch, Clock & Jewelry Repairing.

HAVING OPENED A SHOP IN THE GROCERY of Mr. J. M. Todd, at the corner of Main and Ann streets, I am pleased to inform the workmen at reasonable prices. All work left in my shop in Frankfort will receive prompt attention.

PIANOS AND ORGANS! --- EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.
FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 18, 1884.

Frankfort contributed several visiting statesmen to superintend the election in Ohio Tuesday.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Buck Run Baptist Church in this county. Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis, of this city, is assisting the pastor.

Mr. H. L. Tyler, of the Cedar Run neighborhood, brought to this office on Thursday a bunch of ripe and half ripe blackberries, second crop of this year, grown wild on the farm of Mr. W.
A. Moore.

Judge George R. Bacon, of Peck's Mill, wishes us to announce "kinder easy" that he is going to be a candidate for next County Clerk of this county. The Judge is a hustler and will make it hot for those already on the track.

One of our indignant workingmen denounced the Italian laborers, who have come to this city to work on the water works, thusly: "They are d—n hyenas from Gypsies; every one of them has brought a monkey and hand organ with him, and they will live off of one apple and a banana for a week."

An excursion train will be run from this city to the Louisville Exposition on Thursday next, the train leaving here at 8:15 in the morning, and will leave the Exposition platform at 10:45 at night, giving all who go a chance to see the fireworks. The fare for the round trip, including admission to the Exposition, will only be $1.00.

Roll of honor for Miss Stella Gober's room, for week ending Oct. 10th: Annie Abrahams, Mamie Dryden, Lottie
Evans, Flossie French, Sadie Grant,
Linda Hughes, Norm Magill, Annie
Magill, Eva Macklin, Carrie Moyers,
Frances Wallace, John Bull, Lindsey Blayney, Drake Bailey.

Mr. R. W. Kline, of Shreveport, Louisiana, and Miss Rebecca Taylor, second daughter of Hon. E. H. Taylor, Jr., were married at the residence of the bride's father, on Second street, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Dr. Morris Evans, of Millersburg, officiating.
The happy couple left on the 230 train for their future home in Shreveport.

Our unfortunate neighbor, Lawrenceburg, was again visited by fire on Tuesday night, five of the best business houses in the place being consumed.
They were occupied by the Anderson
News office, Portwood's saloon, H. S.
Carl's furniture store, Judge John H.
Crain's insurance office, T. E. Wells' hardware store, Hickman & Co.'s dry goods store. Loss $30,000, with $22,000 insurance.

Chicken thieves have been busy on the North Side of the city for several weeks past. The coops of Mr. R. K.
McLure, Capt. B. C. Milam, Judge W.
P. D. Bush, Mr. L. A. Thomas, and Mrs. M. J. Gaines have been visited.
In some instances, fresh meat, butter and other articles of food have been carried off. It is thought most of the thefts have been committed in the morning, after the night police go off duty.

A Post of the Grand Army of the Republic was organized in this city on Saturday evening with 22 chapter members, Capt. T. J. Jack, of Covington, acting as mustering officer. It was named Albert G. Bacon Post, in honor of Capt. Bacon, of the Sixth Kentucky Cavalry, the first Kentucky boy who fell on the Union side in the late war. The following officers were elected:

Commander—Gen. D. W. Lindsey.
Senior Vice Commander—V. Berberich.

Junior Vice Commander—T. J.
Hutchinson.

Adjutant—Judge W. H. Sneed.
Quartermaster—Jacob Sower.
Chaplain—C. C. Furr.

Surgeon—Dr. J. G. Hatchitt.
Officer of the Day—A. B. Norwood.
Officer of the Guard—John Dean.

Sergeant Major—H. J. Hyde.
Inside Sentinel—John W. Cox.
Outside Sentinel—John B. Dryden.

The pipe for the water mains is being distributed in South Frankfort.

Mr. H. F. Hillenmeyer, the reliable Lexington nurseryman, advertises his fall stock of trees in this issue.

Cards are out for the wedding of Mr. Chas. F. Exum, of this city, and Miss Katharine Moore, of Winchester, on the 28th inst.

During the jam on the streets Thursday morning a negro baby in a baby buggy came near being run over by a young man in a buggy, on St. Clair street. The buggy was upset and the child thrown out, but was not seriously injured.

The handsome new Colored School building is about completed and the school will be opened on the first Monday in November. The Board of School Trustees have selected the following colored citizens as an Advisory Board of Trustees for the school: Hon.
Pondleton, Jesse Hoeker, W. B.
Luckett, Henry Weisiger, sr., and Merritt Madison.

A number of Italian laborers arrived in this city Saturday afternoon for the purpose of going to work on the new Water Works. About nine o'clock that night a party of about a hundred persons, claiming to represent the laboring men of this city, collected, marched down to the boarding houses of the Italians, just outside the city on the Lewis Ferry pike, and notified them to leave. It is said they promised to do so if given until the next morning. The authorities heard of the matter, assured the Italians of protection should they remain, and warrants were sworn out against J. T. Larkin, Andrew Griffin, and Walter Pearce for participating in the mob, but after an examining trial all were discharged.

Monday the Italians were set to work by the Water Company digging up the twelve inch water main laid between this city and the new reservoir at Cedar Cove.

NEW ORLEANS MINSTRELS. The New Orleans Minstrels were greeted with an excellent audience at their performance at the City Hall last night.
The company, one and all, are gentlemen on and off the stage, and deserve patronage wherever they may appear.
Every feature of the great show was first-class, and from the time the curtains were drawn until the final company was greeted with an almost continuous round of applause. The jokes were fresh, new and witty, the singing splendid, the instrumental music, especially the gold band, charming, the champion military clog, arranged by the company, the real-life broadway comedy sketch, and the broadway's best comedy, the pantomime by the three Gormans, brimming over with fun which fairly brought down the house. When they come this way again we bespeak for them an audience that will fill the City Hall to its fullest capacity.

At the Opera House, Tuesday, October 21.

A fine assortment of gentlemen's neck wear at Hudson & Meagher's.

What are you crying about? Asked a kind hearted stranger of a lad who was standing in front of a newspaper office weeping as if his heart would break. I can't find Sower & Ahler's oyster parlor and restaurant, Dad want's some of them four X oysters.

FOR RENT.—20 to 30 acres of No. 1 wheat land. Apply to Luther Crutcher.

Don't forget that you can get hats and bonnets cheaper at Ferguson & Albritton's than any other place in the city.

Sower & Ahler's restaurant receives daily an extraordinary variety of meat, fish, oysters, game, gelée, lake fish, etc. It is quite the thing to dine there and a person who has never tasted one of their tenderloin steaks hasn't a correct idea of the acme of bliss.

Facts to be Considered.

First.—That Miles & Son make the Standard Flour, and is so considered whenever sold.

Second.—Their Crystal is the best Patent made or sold in the State outside of J. E. M., and retails at only $3.00 per 100 pounds.

Third.—Ales is a better flour than nineteenth of the so-called Patents, and retails at $2.25 per 100 pounds.

Fourth.—Fancy is the best straight grade on the market, and retails at $2.50 per 100 pounds.

The fault with most all cough preparations is that they contain many drugs, which are not good for the stomach and nerves. That simple preparation of wild cherry bark called Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, contains no morphia and yet will cure a cough or cold in less time than any other compound. It is the only reliable cure for consumption.

A young man who went to the circus with one of Sower & Ahler's boxes of bread made from J. E. M. flour had his arm seized and savagely jerked by one of the monkeys.

Everybody should remember that Sower & Ahler are the bakers of our city.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Cedar Run.

Bud Saniford has gone to Louisville, Root for Pea Ridge.

Mrs. Parker Tamm has returned from a week's visit to Louisville.

Mrs. Lizzie Tyler, of Quality Corner, is visiting her son, H. L. Tyler.

Judge G. R. Bacon, of Peak's Mill, spent Tuesday with Q. C. Miller.

Mrs. James Perkins, of Jessamine, spent several days on Cedar Run.

Mrs. Jennie Hearn, of Jett, spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Johnson.

Misses Minnie Thompson, Annie Coddwell, and Adah Morris visited Glendale last week.

W. A. Moore visited his son, S. P. Moore, in Louisville, last week and took in the Exposition.

Mrs. Lizzie Johnson is very much ill-preserved. She has gone to her daughter's, Mrs. Hearn's, at Jett Station.

Mrs. Sue Murphy, of Jessamine county, made a short visit to her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Conney, this week.

It seems that Nix got too much spirits. We are somewhat surprised that a man as temperate as Nix was a few weeks since, when he was so afraid of a custer, to try to use a dollar's worth of them on his night-espouse when the spirits were low, but as represented them to be. Try twenty-five cents' worth next time, Nix.

Q. C. CUMBER.

Antioch.

Junie and Barnum are all the rage. Mr. John Bryant, of Tiger, was over last Sunday visiting friends.

Mr. Matt Chisom and wife, of Bailey's Mill, are up visiting relatives this week.

Mr. Alonzo Wallace visited friends near Pleasant Ridge Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. J. W. Sonomes and lady visited Mr. Dick Moore and family the first of the week.

Antioch sent quite a delegation to Pleasant Ridge last Sunday. Five young ladies with their beaux.

The toll road in the Plum Branch hills, between the Plum Branch and Brown's, Mr. Bledsoe keeper.

Mr. B. F. Capito and Miss Flossie Wallace, of Cave Hill Farm were the guests of Mrs. J. W. Tracy Sunday.

The toll road in the Plum Branch completed except the plastering and the subscription when they will be finished.

One of Mr. L. Harvie's bands got lost last week while returning from work. For further information inquire of Mr. Harvie.

Why can't Frankfort get up a tobacco show? Everybody claims to have the finest that ever grew out of the ground. Who can't be a Cap. Davis?

The telegrapher, Mr. B. F. & C. G. pipe is to be moved to his old quarters. But it on wheels, gentlemen. George has two good horses; he will haul it about for you.

You took a peep at Henry Spalding's oriole last week. His son, a young hawk squelched with delight and his tobacco would make an old smoker dance with joy at the prospects before him.

It is certainly very gratifying to know that our article on spiritualism, in our last issue, has been so universally condemned by different parties of the country. We are glad to see that in most cases we thought were too flattering. But it brings up the question, is this false, pernicious doctrine or the inverse? Please, children, for your sake, guard your children from its baneful influences! There is one thing certain, beyond a doubt, to make spiritualism true, you must first prove the Bible to be a lie; can you do that?

NIX.

The Coleman Addition.

Mrs. Silas Johnson and wife, of Virgina, are visiting her mother, Mrs. Castlemann, on Short street.

Mrs. Mag. Conway spent several days in the country last week, visiting the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. F. M. Conway.

There is an old lady living on Short street, who is in great need and should be looked after by the Christian people. She was around last week begging for only a few cents' worth of goods for patches and a little thread.

The old brick building known as the Jack Glare Mansion has been greatly repaired and improved in appearance.

Benson.

Mrs. Pryor is to build two tenement houses on her farm soon.

Mrs. Sarah Sheets has been on the sick list but is improving.

Misses B. Shouse and Bredie Parsons are visiting friends near Harveland this week.

The Benson Valley Pike is progressing finely and will be second to none in the country when completed.

Mr. W. A. Moore, of Bill's Hill, will begin building a house on the farm purchased of Judge Cradock in a few days.

Mr. Ed. Sheetz gave the young folks a dance last Monday night, at which all enjoyed themselves until a late hour.

The North Benson Church, (Baptist) has a communion called the "Love of Christ" as their pastor and are looking for him daily. We congratulate the Church in their choice, as he is a good preacher and a Christian gentleman.

Les Conway was over on his usual visit last Sunday, but his Birdie had down. He then went to meeting at North Benson Church, but there was no one there. Two disappointments in one day is too much for a young man to walk so far for.

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

GLEANINGS.

That school government which fails to lead pupils to virtue in right conduct, and the nobleness in right conduct, is the kind administered by those who, if they reason at all, think that character is built up by acceptions from without, and not by seeing it as it is, in an adaptation by force, from within.

True education develops all the faculties of the human being harmoniously. It does not lead the pupil in the direction of what he needs, but in that of others; but training him in all of them, physical, mental and moral, and makes of him a noble specimen of manhood, capable of enjoying the highest degree of happiness which bodily inheritance and surrounding circumstances will permit. Intellectual man is often associated with mental depravity. In school the entire development is to be given to the development of intellect.—Evening Teacher.

THE COMMERCIAL.

LOUISVILLE, KY.—The Commercial is at present engaged working a gold mine in Norway, and the time recently had an interview with the head of the concern, who presented him with some gold jewelry, the produce of the mine, including one being enormous, a large number of which were found. Some men said, "I am very glad to hear it because they are just the sort of men to give satisfaction."
